

CALL HOME: (516) 378-0665

The Peace of Christ be with you. You have reached the home of Our Holy Redeemer in Freeport, where the hazy, hot, and humid days of summer are no match for our faith in Jesus Christ! If this is an emergency and someone is dying, please call: (516) 492 – 6508. That's (516) 492 – 6508.

There is no match for our faith in Jesus Christ. Through, with, and in Him we share in His victory that even as we speak is winning the day! And that brothers and sisters irks the Devil, and prods him to employ the evil spirits that seek to divide and conquer while the Holy Spirit has been handed over by Christ to unite us: to God and one another!

Before we can stand united in our pursuit of peace and justice for every human person regardless of race, language, skin colour, sex, creed, or stage of development, we must kneel before God. We must acknowledge our sins; we must ask forgiveness for our sins; and we must repent. Then and only then we will see more clearly how to bring about the conversion of others. Then and only then will others see that there is something greater than Jonah here; something greater than the wisdom of Solomon here. Then and only then will we be one as the Father and Jesus are One: in the Spirit of our common humanity that makes us One with every human person regardless of race, language, skin colour, sex, creed, or stage of development.

Come home for Holy Mass where we kneel before God and stand united every Saturday at 5:00 P.M. in English and 7:00 P.M. in Spanish. And on Sunday at 7:00 A.M., 8:00 A.M., 9:30 A.M., 11:30 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. in English and at 1:30 P.M. in Spanish. In addition to those Masses, the generosity of the Grover family has made it possible for us to have Mass at 175 Woodcleft Avenue on the Nautical Mile: at 10:00 A.M. in English and in Spanish at 11:30 A.M. Parishioners are strongly encouraged to attend these outdoor Masses and to bring a chair.
