

HELP WANTED

(Please Call)

In Our Holy Redeemer’s bulletin from last Sunday, the XXI Sunday in Ordinary Time (22/23 August 2015), I bid farewell to, and offered words of gratitude for, the Faith by which Our Holy Redeemer was taken to 175 Woodcleft Avenue for our II Annual Summer Concert Series. In addition to the people mentioned there-in, I would like to offer an additional expression of gratitude for the many people who made a “pre-season” donation, as well as the “at-the-show” contributors that helped offset the cost of the Series and to bring Our Holy Redeemer to the Waterfront!

Our Holy Redeemer’s offering on Freeport’s Waterfront this Summer was not restricted to entertainment alone. As in years past, Faith also brought Our Holy Redeemer to Woodcleft Avenue for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. For eight consecutive Sundays (5 July – 23 August) at 10:00 A.M., parishioners and non-parishioners alike, answered the invitation to “come home”, and for eight consecutive Sundays they – just like Sunday Mass-goers in our absolutely beautiful church at 37 South Ocean Avenue – discovered why coming home is what it’s all about!

Now that Our Holy Redeemer has left Grover’s Dock, many people (like The Twelve in the Upper Room) are wondering what to do. Here, I am not speaking about the many people who just happened to be passing by on a Wednesday night and heard the music, or passed by on a Sunday morning and “recognized Him in the Breaking of the Bread”, but rather those who helped make our II Annual Summer Concert Series and Mass on the Waterfront happen in 2015. If you can be counted amongst them, and your Wednesday nights are free, then please call me. I would like you to help me bring back not only the Concerts and the Mass next Summer, but also the people who were just passing by! “Come after Me and I will make you fishers of men.” (Saint Matthew IV:19)

ATTENTION PARISHIONERS!

Do you want to help keep our church looking “absolutely beautiful?”
Then we want you to join our Altar Guild!

Some of our monthly tasks include:

- ❖ Arrange Missals in the racks
- ❖ Vacuum the rugs
- ❖ Sweep/mop the floors
- ❖ Clean the glass around the church
- ❖ Raise the kneelers
- ❖ Dust

To volunteer or for more information, please call Jane Dengel at (516) 379-2331

THANK YOU!
