Quote of the Week

Who am I—what kind of watchman am I? I do not stand on the pinnacle of achievement, I languish rather in the depths of my weakness. And yet the Creator and Redeemer of mankind can give me, unworthy though I be, the grace to see life whole and power to speak effectively of it. It is for love of Him that I do not spare myself in preaching Him.

—Pope Saint Gregory the Great
Doctor of the Church

Thus the Word of the Lord came to me: Son of man, speak thus to your countrymen. When I bring the sword against your countrymen, and the people of this country select one of their number to be their watchman, and the watchman, seeing the sword coming against the country, blows the trumpet to warn the people. Anyone hearing but not heeding the warning of the trumpet and therefore slain by the sword that comes against him, shall be responsible for his own death.

Book of Ezechiel, XXXIII: 1-5
