GIFT OF ALMS IN THANKS FOR NEW FOUND FAITH

The largest check I ever received for the poor of the world was for $165,000. Upon inquiry, I found that it came from a young girl who was twenty-one years of age. She told me that it was the full inheritance she received from her parents; now that she was totally destitute, she would begin studying as a nurse to earn her living. On further inquiry as to why she made such a total sacrifice, her answer was: "I received the gift of faith at a moment when my life was so empty. I want to help the poor in gratitude for my new wealth." The moment one begins to make oneself empty, then it is possible to be filled. A box that is filled with sand cannot be filled with gold; a heart that is drunk with ego cannot find place for love of humanity. The new humanists are unhappy in our rich culture, our cutting of corners to pile up money, the new psychological aids of trying to be happy by lifting oneself by one's own bootstraps. As hunger drove the prodigal home, so they are driven to serve, to feed, to love the poor.

BOOK Of The Week: *Married Saints and Blesseds through the Centuries

Countless saints have been priests or religious, living out lives of penance and sacrifice for the sake of the Church. But many Catholics don't realize that married couples are called to holiness as well. Fr. Holböck's tells the inspiring stories of over 200 married saints and blessed...
