Missionary Disciple of the Week

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

FEAST DAY: WEDNESDAY 04 OCTOBER

Born in 1181. Founder of the Franciscan Order.

Inspired at the age of 25 by the Scripture passage of St. Matthew, (see box above), he abandoned a comfortable life of prestige and affluence and chose to live in absolute poverty. He travelled great distances on foot evangelizing the teachings of Jesus, and started a great movement to move people towards Jesus and a holy life in accordance with our Catholic faith. He touched many lives and saved many souls with his devotion to the Passion of Christ. Towards the end of his short life, he suffered great physical pain as well, and died in 1226.

* REMINDER: Gospel reflections due each week – have children complete and bring to their Catechist on class day. ****
