FILM OF THE WEEK
 THE DIVINE PLAN

The Divine Plan dives deep into the pivotal bond between Pope John Paul II and President Ronald Reagan. Just six weeks apart in the spring of 1981, the pope and the president took bullets from would-be assassins. Surviving strikingly similar near-death experiences, they confided to each other a shared conviction: that God had spared their lives for the purpose of defeating communism.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

St. Teresa of Avila (Feast Day: 10/15)

"Once, while I was wondering why Our Lord so dearly loves the virtue of humility, the thought suddenly struck me, without previous reflection, that it is because God is the supreme Truth and humility is the truth..."

Week Thirty-Three Selection

EXCERPT FROM: PREFACE TO RELIGION
 FROM CHAPTER 2 "WHAT IS GOD LIKE"

If you do not worship God, you worship something, and nine times out of ten it will be yourself. If there is no God, then you are a god; and if you are a god and your own law and your creator, then we ought never to be surprised that there are so many atheists.

The basic reason there is so little worship of God today is because man denies he is a creature. Without a sense of creatureliness, or dependence, there can be no worship. But we have not yet answered the question: "Why should you worship God?" You have a duty to worship God, not because He will pout and be imperfect and unhappy if you do not, but because if you do not worship God you will be imperfect and unhappy...

To refuse to worship is to deny a dependence that makes us independent. Worship is to us what blooming is to a rose. To refuse worship would be like the rose cutting itself off from the sun and the earth, or a student denying that history can teach him anything. To withhold admiration from one who deserves it is a sign of a jealous, conceited mind...

God made you to be happy. He made you for your happiness, not His. God would still be perfectly happy if you never existed. God has no need of your love for His sake for there is nothing in you, of and by yourself, which makes you lovable to God...

...God does not love us because we are valuable; we are valuable because He loves us...☪☪☪
