Quote of the Week

Secondly, the dawn is the mother of the sun and the daughter of the sun; all men, indeed, all creatures, even angelic, are the sons of God through creation; Mary alone is daughter and mother, because truly she conceived and brought forth her Creator. An astounding privilege, from which innumerable others follow. For, the grace was given to her which befitted the Mother of God. Consider here how great was the joy of the holy fathers in limbo, when they saw that the dawn was born, and hence, they knew the proximity of the sun, especially when a very long night of four thousand years had preceded it.

St. Robert Bellarmine
From: The Marian Writings
Feast Day: 17 September

HE SAID IN REPLY, "IT IS WRITTEN:
'One does not live on bread alone, but by every word that come forth from the mouth of God.'

St. Matthew, IV:4
