FORMED
BOOK
OF THE WEEK
THE IMITATION
OF CHRIST

The spiritual classic by Thomas à Kempis, is the second most widely read spiritual book after the Bible... his four-part treatise shrugs off the allure of the material world, blending beauty and bluntness in a supremely spiritual call-to-arms.

This beautiful translation by Ronald Knox and Michael Oakley is considered by many teachers, writers, and readers to be the best English translation ever...

A Year with Our Blessed Mother Through the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary

MOTHER MOST PURE, PRAY FOR US

Excerpt from: The Mother of Our Savior by Father Reginald Garrigou-LaGrange, O.P.

St. Thomas and the Immaculate Conception

In the first—that of 1253-1254, the beginning of his theological career—he supports the privilege, probably because of the liturgical tradition which favoured it, as well as because of his pious admiration for the perfect holiness of the Mother of God. It is in this period that he wrote: 'Purity is increased by withdrawing from its opposite: hence there can be a creature than whom no more pure is possible in creation, if it be free from all contagion of sin: and such was the purity of the Blessed Virgin who was immune from original and actual sin.' ...

In the final period of his career, when writing the Exposito super salutation angelica—which is certainly authentic—in 1272 or 1273, Saint Thomas expressed himself thus: For she (the Blessed Virgin) was most pure in the matter of fault and incurred neither original nor mental nor venial sin.
