And now I am going to Him who sent Me, and no one of you asks Me, "Where art Thou going?..But I speak the truth to you; it is expedient for you that I depart. For if I do not go, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you. And when He has come He will convict the world of sin, and of justice and of judgment: of sin because they do not believe in Me; of justice, because I go to the Father, and you will see Me no more and of judgement, because the prince of this world has already been judged.

Gospel of Saint John, XVI:5-11

Excerpt from the book,

The Interior Life Simplified and Reduced to Its Fundamental Principle

Written by an unnamed Capuchin monk in the 19th century

The Seven Sacraments.—There are seven Sacraments, i.e., seven springs of life, answering to the wants of my terrestrial existence. First of all, the initial Sacrament that sows the seeds of eternity, Baptism, which changes a child of Adam into a Christian, a child of God, of the Church, and of eternity. Confirmation fructifies the baptismal seeds by bringing to the soul the seven gifts of the life-giving Spirit. The Eucharist feeds the holy growth with a substance which is none other than the very substance of the Son of God and the Son of man, the Sovereign food of the divine life and of the human life in the Christian, since Jesus Christ has the fullness of the divine life and the human life.

Penance repairs what is damaged, and cures what is diseased; it even brings back from death, since it wipes out mortal sin, which is the death of the soul...Then there is Extreme Unction, the last of our earth-life's consecrations and purifications, and the preparation for the life eternal, when the soul is standing on tis threshold.

Lastly, there are two Sacraments which continue and preserve the Sacred seed. Holy Order, which consecrates those who are to propagate the divine life, and Holy Marriage, which consecrates those who are to propagate human life...

Lourdes. A Story of Faith, Science and Miracles

Bernard Guillaumet, a non-Christian French journalist, is assigned the job of doing a story on Lourdes in the late 1990s. Just before he leaves for Lourdes, Bernard learns that his wife is pregnant. However, he is not told that this pregnancy could put her life at risk--and that doctors are suggesting an abortion.
