QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Joseph was a man who always listened to the voice of God; he was deeply sensitive to His secret will; he was a man attentive to the messages that came to him from the depths of his heart and from on High...

By accepting himself according to God's design, Joseph fully finds himself, beyond himself. His freedom to renounce even what is his, the possession of his very life, and his full interior availability to the will of God challenge us and show us the way.

Pope Francis

JOSEPH, wise ruler of God's earthly household,
Nearest of all men to the heart of Jesus,
Be still a father, lovingly providing for us, his brethren.

Saint strong and manly, chosen by the Father,
Guide us as once you guided Wisdom's footsteps with sure direction.

Husband of Mary, loving and beloved,
Teach us the joy of love so pure and holy,
Warming our hearts with love for God's own Mother by your example.

Saint of the dying, blest with Mary's presence,
In death you rested in the arms of Jesus; So at our ending, Jesus, Mary and Joseph, come to assist us.

Hymn: from Divine Office, Volume II

ST. JOSEPH

HUSBAND OF MARY,

FOSTER PARENT OF JESUS

FEAST DAY: MONDAY, 19 MARCH

Reading From A Sermon by St. Bernardine Of Siena

Whenever divine grace selects someone to receive a particular grace, or some especially favoured position, all the gifts for this state are given to that person, and enrich him abundantly.

This is especially true for that holy man Joseph, the supposed father of our Lord Jesus Christ, and true husband of the queen of the world and of the angels. He was chosen by the eternal Father to be the faithful foster-parent and guardian of the most precious treasures of God, his Son and His spouse. This was the task which he so faithfully carried out. For this, the Lord said to him, 'Good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Lord.'

A comparison can be made between Joseph and the whole Church of Christ. Joseph was the specially chosen man through whom and under whom Christ entered the world fittingly and in an appropriate way. So, if the whole Church is in the debt of the Virgin Mary, since, through her, it was able to receive the Christ, surely after her, it also owes to Joseph special thanks and veneration.

Therefore be mindful of us, blessed Joseph, and intercede for us with Him whom men thought to be your Son. Win for us the favour of the most Blessed Virgin your spouse, the mother of Him who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit through ages unending. Amen.
