“THERE IS A BOY HERE WHO HAS FIVE BARLEY LOAVES

and two fish; but what good are these for so many? Jesus said, “Have the people recline.” Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number.

Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, He said to His Disciples, ‘Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted.’

Gospel of St. John, VI: 9-12

THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY FEAST DAY: 21 NOVEMBER

An excerpt from the Mystical City of God, Volume I

421. The three years’ time decreed by the Lord having been completed, Joachim and Anne set out from Nazareth, accompanied by a few of their kindred and bringing with them the true living Ark of the covenant, the most holy Mary, borne on the arms of her mother in order to be deposited in the holy temple of Jerusalem...

422. They arrived at the holy temple, and the blessed Anne on entering took her Daughter and Mistress by the hand, accompanied and assisted by saint Joachim. All three offered a devout and fervent prayer to the Lord, the parents offering to God their Daughter, and the most holy Child, in profound humility, adoration and worship, offered up Herself. She alone perceived that the Most High received and accepted Her, and, amid divine splendor which filled the temple, She heard a voice saying to Her: “Come, my Beloved, my Spouse, come to my temple, where I wish to hear thy voice of praise and worship.”

Blessed Mary of Agreda
