"In those days he departed to the mountain to pray and he spent the night in prayer to God. When day came, he called his disciples to Himself, and from them He chose Twelve, whom He also named apostles: Simon, whom He named Peter, and his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called a Zealot, and Judas the son of James, and Judas Isacariot, who became a traitor."

Gospel of St. Luke: VI; 12-16

Missionary Disciple of the Week

ST. ANTHONY MARY CLARET, BISHOP

FEAST DAY: TUESDAY 24 OCTOBER

Anthony Claret was born in a town in Northern Spain in 1807. He came from a poor family. His father was a weaver and put him to work learning the trade. He also learned Latin. He went into the Seminary in 1829 and six years later was ordained into the priesthood. He established a religious congregation called Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Because of that success, he was appointed Archbishop of Santiago in Cuba. In this appointment Anthony Claret had the enormous responsibility of re-christianizing the diocese here. This was greatly challenging and there were eight attempts on his life. Eight years later, he returned to Spain and was confessor to Queen Isabella II. The Revolution of 1868 banished both the Queen and Anthony Claret from the country, and after a short time in Rome, he died in France in 1870.
