QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“My daughter, thou art filled with astonishment at seeing, by means of new light, the mystery of the humiliation of the Divinity in uniting Himself with the human nature in the womb of a poor maiden such as I was. I wish, however, my dearest, that thou turn thy attention toward thyself and consider, how God humiliated Himself, came into my womb, not only for myself alone, but for thee as well. The Lord is infinite in His mercy and His love has no limit, and thus He attends and esteems and assists every soul who receives Him, and He rejoices in it, as if He had created it alone, and as if He had been made man for it alone.

Blessed Mary of Agreda
From Mystical City of God

THE HOLY ARCHANGEL SALUTED OUR AND HIS QUEEN AND SAID: “Hail Mary full of grace, blessed are you amongst women” (Luke 1, 28). Hearing this new salutation of the angel, this most humble of all creatures was disturbed, but not confused in mind (Luke 1, 29). This disturbance arose from two causes: first, from her humility, for she thought herself the lowest of the creatures and thus in her humility, was taken unawares at hearing Herself saluted and called the “Blessed among women;” second, when she heard this salute and began to consider within herself how she should receive it, she was interiorly made to understand by the Lord, the He chose Her for His Mother, and this caused a still greater perturbation, having such a humble opinion of herself. On account of this perturbation the angel proceeded to explain to her the decree of the Lord, saying “Do not fear, Mary, for thou hast found grace before the Lord (Luke 1, 30); behold thou shalt conceive a Son in thy womb, and thou shalt give birth to Him, and thou shalt name Him Jesus; He shall be great, and He shall be called Son of the Most High,” and the rest as recorded of the holy archangel...

At the same moment, with a humility never sufficiently to be extolled, inclining slightly her head and joining her hands, She pronounced these words, which were the beginning of our salvation: “May it be done to me according to Thy word” (Luke 1, 31).
