Quote of the Week

There we talked together, she and I alone, in deep joy; and forgetting the things that were behind and looking forward to those that were before ...And my mother said: Son, for my own part I no longer find joy in anything in this world. ...One thing there was, for which I desired to remain still a little longer in this life, that I should see you a Catholic Christian before I died. This God has granted me in superabundance, in that I now see you His servant to the contempt of all worldly happiness.

—Bishop Saint Augustine
Speaking about his mother,
Saint Monica

AND NOW, LORD, Thou knowest that not for fleshly lust do I take my sister to wife, but only for the love of posterity, in which Thy Name may be blessed forever and ever. Sara also said: Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us, and let us grow old both together in health.

Book of Tobit, VIII:19-10
