“On the third day there was a wedding in Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."

Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

Gospel of St. John, II: 1-5

Missionary Disciple of the Week

ST. POPE JOHN XXIII.

FEAST DAY: WEDNESDAY 11 OCTOBER

St. Pope John XXIII was born on 25 November 1881. In August of 1904 he was ordained a priest... He was elected Pope on 28 October 1958, taking the name John XXIII. His pontificate... presented him to the entire world as an authentic image of the Good Shepherd. Meek and gentle, enterprising and courageous, simple and active, he carried out the Christian duties of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy: visiting the imprisoned and the sick, welcoming those of every nation and faith, bestowing on all his exquisite fatherly care. He died 3 June 1963. (Source: USCCB website)

As we celebrate the 100th anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima's sixth and final appearance, here is a quote about the beauty of the Rosary:

This is the rosary of Mary, considered in its various elements, which are linked together in vocal prayer and woven into it as in a delicate and rich embroidery, full of spiritual warmth and beauty.

—John XXIII. The Holy Rosary, P 360, Journal of a Soul
